| 7 Bleed Focus | 1 2 3 | | | | | | | | Immediate Effect: The Marked unit becomes a Bled unit and suffers D10 wounds per warrior, distributed to each Different Mark's wounded warrior first. Continuous Effect: Any parries, evades or avoids made by a Bled unit are difficult parries, evades or avoids until the end of its next activation. Rules: Once per Mark; Majority Mark | 2+ +strength | 16 | | |
| 8 Fuse Focus | 1 2 3 | | | | | | | | Immediate Effect: One Marked warrior from the Marked unit must immediately take a MIGHT TEST, in this case a FUSING TEST . If the FUSING TEST is passed, the Marked warrior is unaffected. If the FUSING TEST is failed, the Marked warrior (now called the Fused warrior) receives invoke damage equal to the difference between the FUSING TEST result and his MIGHT, called the fuse damage . Additionally, the fuse damage is deducted from the Fused warrior's MIGHT. If this reduces the Fused warrior's MIGHT to 0, the Fused warrior is dead. Rules: Khthonic | 3+ +strength | 16 | | |
| 9 Quake Focus | 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 | 35 | 37 | Focus Marks: Marked units must include every unit (friend or enemy) within total focus range, including the Invoker's unit. Continuous Effect: Each Marked unit's next Ground Move cannot be a Direct Move and will be a Difficult Move . Rules: Once per Mark; Majority Mark; Khthonic | | | | | | | | 2+ +strength | 20 |
| 10 Melding Metal Focus | 1 2 3 | 30 | 32 | Melded Marks: Marked unit may only be a unit that contains warriors that bear equipment of the class "Worn" or "Borne". Warriors that bear such equipment are called Melded warriors . Immediate Effect: The Marked unit becomes a Melded unit . One element of each Melded warrior's equipment - of class "Worn" or "Borne" only, chosen by the Invoker and now called the melded equipment - has its attack dice or shoot dice reduced to a minimum of 1. If the melded equipment is an armour element, that armour element is totally destroyed. This causes D10 wounds per invoked die upon the Melded unit, distributed randomly amongst the Melded warriors only. The melded equipment must be the same class and type for Melded warriors of the same Class and SKILL where possible. Rules: Entire Mark | | | | | | | | 2+ +strength | 24 |

| 1 | The Hydra's Tooth From the earth they return | | Resurrection (command action): Ophios may throw the Hydra's Tooth anywhere on the battlefield within 6" of the sight arc of his base, whereupon a Hydra is resurrected from the earth and called the Resurrected Hydra. Place the exact centre of a Hydra miniature's base on this point; any warriors that would lie under this base must be Displaced the minimum distance so that they lie outside of the footprint of the Resurrected Hydra's base immediately. If Ophios' player does not have an appropriate Hydra miniature, a Hydra cannot be resurrected. Resurrected Hydra: The Resurrected Hydra has 10D10 points of CONSTITUTION on its profile when it is placed. After rolling for the Resurrected Hydra's CONSTITUTION, Ophios may increase its CONSTITUTION immediately by deducting the amount he increases it by from his own CONSTITUTION, as long as this does not kill him. The Resurrected Hydra's attack dice are arranged as appropriate by Ophios' player depending on its CONSTITUTION. A Resurrected Hydra is lively and frenzied when it is first placed. The Resurrected Hydra counts as a friendly unit (and thus part of Ophios' host) and is placed within Ophios' command. The Resurrected Hydra, if killed, costs half the gold of a Hydra when mustered for the purposes of calculating the Butcher's Bill. A Resurrected Hydra, if it is dead, does not count as a dead warrior when making a RAVAGED TEST. Ophios cannot control the Resurrected Hydra of another player. Rules: One use only. | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | |

| Net: The Gorgon's Net weapon is used to Grab any warrior whose strength is less than or equal to his own strength, rather than half his strength, before any other Attack (including Charge Attacks) are performed by the Gorgon. Any warrior Grabbed by the Gorgon's Net - now also called the Netted warrior - is entangled until after any Attack Result reactions are performed, at which point the Netted warrior becomes disentangled. Net and Shield Parry: the Net and Shield combination enables the Gorgon to Parry with two pieces of equipment, which means the parry value is modified by -2. | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | |
